

TELEGRAPHIC ITEMS.

No more smallpox in Hamilton College, New York.

Mrs. Manton, of Boston, died in a drunken fit yesterday.

A batch of disciples for Salt Lake, left Nashville yesterday.

Sam. A. Way, a well-known financier, is dying.

The Senate at Albany passed the New York registry law yesterday.

The new charter for New York City makes a clean sweep of all city officers.

James Costello, of New York City, charged with murder, has been acquitted.

Two million dollars in Japanese gold have been received in San Francisco for recoinage.

Ellis Ward and John Biglin are to sell for one thousand dollars near New York soon.

The Sultan has placed a steam yacht at the disposal of Sherman for a trip to Sevastopol.

The Arms Committee at Washington are still working on the Franco-Russian treaty.

The troops of Ananias are marching with the Carlist in Spain.

On March 30, an explosion of a magazine at Tientsin destroyed thirty houses. Many lives were lost.

The civil service reform bill passed the House yesterday by a vote of ninety-five to seventy-nine.

William Smith, who killed policeman Starkey, of Nashville, some time ago, is now arrested in New York.

Rich place mines have been discovered on the Colorado river, two hundred miles above Colorado City.

James Malone, of Boston, tried yesterday to violate his brother William's wife. Not succeeding, he killed her.

He has been arrested in New York.

Ryan, who killed Doyle at the Revere House some months ago, escaped from Camp Douglas by a vote of ninety-five to seventy-nine.

John Scarborough was shot through the heart and killed in Wheeling, Virginia, yesterday, by George W. Robinson.

Civilians attached to military expeditions, or camps, voluntarily or otherwise, are hereafter to be amenable to military law.

The Port Huron and Lake Michigan Railroad has been sold for ninety thousand dollars of preferred stock for work done.

The Illinois Tunnel Company struck the drift of the Evansville tunnel.

It is the latest claim of the tunnel company to be the oldest location.

A woman on the East Tennessee and Georgia Road was run over and killed yesterday in attempting to save a little pig from a fat.

In the Canadian Parliament the anti-slavery question is being discussed.

The Indianapolis Sabbath School gathering appointed a committee on uniformity, which case will make an elaborate report at their lecture.

The naval investigation force like that into the case of arms drops is being sent along. Robinson never will be convicted. Grant can't afford it.

The newly-elected Mayor of St. Paul, Minnesota, is a Maine native. The town was turned out of the postmaster's office while since, to make room for a Grant man.

The Japan and China line of mail steamers is to be subsidized to the extent of one million dollars by the Government.

The Sabbath School Convention at Indianapolis, yesterday, adopted a resolution inviting the Sabbath school people of the Dominion to send delegates to the next meeting.

It is supposed that Bullock, late Governor of Georgia, has either left the United States or is on his way to Europe, where he is supposed to be.

Robert Step and James Hall, charged with the murder of a man named Lewis Hill, in Fentress county, Tennessee, on the 20th of November, 1871, have been arrested and lodged in jail at Nashville.

The counties of Putnam, Jackson and Smith, in this State, suffered almost irreparably by a flood from the rain of the 18th. Houses, fences, barns, crops, were washed away, and much of the cultivated land ruined.

San Gabriel place mines, Los Angeles county, California, from whence gold was sent to the Philadelphia mint in 1868—twenty-one tons of gold were discovered at Calaveras about to be worked by hydraulics, and on a large scale.

We are to have another public washing of the solidified form of a great author and his family. It is said that the friends of Mr. Dickens propose, in view of the late publication of his "Foster's" volume, to publish the true story of the separation.

For the year ending January 1, 1872, Wells, Fargo & Co., of Salt Lake, received three million dollars worth of bullion from Mexico. During the last three months over one million dollars worth was sent east.

A dispatch from San Francisco says the American commission in Mexico, which was not left this side of the Colorado, is now in the Rio Grande valley.

Yonah, who was thrown down, the earth opened in many places, no lives lost.

It is stated in Washington, that the President is very anxious to adopt an aggressive policy toward Spain; that he is only held back from precipitating critical relations with that country by the more careful members of the Cabinet.

A man named Lomble was killed by a fellow mechanic in Knoxville Wednesday. The two men were working on a while at their work a few days before. Hammet was struck with a wrench on the back of the head, and he got a pistol and shot Lomble in the forehead, making a deep ridge which produced fatal results.

One hundred and fifty thousand dollars worth of improvements have been made in the city of Cincinnati, and on Thursday, at one hundred and thirty-five, being three and one-half percent above par.

The New York Star publishes an account of the poisoning of the wife and three children of David Fisher, a white man, and an inmate of Tilden's house, on East Long Island, by the late John Lewis, a colored man, who was a justice of the peace. The bodies of the woman and child were found in a box for medical investigation.

Considerable excitement exists among the sporting men of the country over the report that the famous Jockey, John W. Sherman, has been killed by a horse, at Long Branch, New Jersey, on the 18th inst.

The New York Star publishes an account of the poisoning of the wife and three children of David Fisher, a white man, and an inmate of Tilden's house, on East Long Island, by the late John Lewis, a colored man, who was a justice of the peace. The bodies of the woman and child were found in a box for medical investigation.

Considerable excitement exists among the sporting men of the country over the report that the famous Jockey, John W. Sherman, has been killed by a horse, at Long Branch, New Jersey, on the 18th inst.

The New York Star publishes an account of the poisoning of the wife and three children of David Fisher, a white man, and an inmate of Tilden's house, on East Long Island, by the late John Lewis, a colored man, who was a justice of the peace. The bodies of the woman and child were found in a box for medical investigation.

Considerable excitement exists among the sporting men of the country over the report that the famous Jockey, John W. Sherman, has been killed by a horse, at Long Branch, New Jersey, on the 18th inst.

The New York Star publishes an account of the poisoning of the wife and three children of David Fisher, a white man, and an inmate of Tilden's house, on East Long Island, by the late John Lewis, a colored man, who was a justice of the peace. The bodies of the woman and child were found in a box for medical investigation.

Considerable excitement exists among the sporting men of the country over the report that the famous Jockey, John W. Sherman, has been killed by a horse, at Long Branch, New Jersey, on the 18th inst.

The New York Star publishes an account of the poisoning of the wife and three children of David Fisher, a white man, and an inmate of Tilden's house, on East Long Island, by the late John Lewis, a colored man, who was a justice of the peace. The bodies of the woman and child were found in a box for medical investigation.

Considerable excitement exists among the sporting men of the country over the report that the famous Jockey, John W. Sherman, has been killed by a horse, at Long Branch, New Jersey, on the 18th inst.

The New York Star publishes an account of the poisoning of the wife and three children of David Fisher, a white man, and an inmate of Tilden's house, on East Long Island, by the late John Lewis, a colored man, who was a justice of the peace. The bodies of the woman and child were found in a box for medical investigation.

Considerable excitement exists among the sporting men of the country over the report that the famous Jockey, John W. Sherman, has been killed by a horse, at Long Branch, New Jersey, on the 18th inst.

The New York Star publishes an account of the poisoning of the wife and three children of David Fisher, a white man, and an inmate of Tilden's house, on East Long Island, by the late John Lewis, a colored man, who was a justice of the peace. The bodies of the woman and child were found in a box for medical investigation.

Considerable excitement exists among the sporting men of the country over the report that the famous Jockey, John W. Sherman, has been killed by a horse, at Long Branch, New Jersey, on the 18th inst.

The New York Star publishes an account of the poisoning of the wife and three children of David Fisher, a white man, and an inmate of Tilden's house, on East Long Island, by the late John Lewis, a colored man, who was a justice of the peace. The bodies of the woman and child were found in a box for medical investigation.

Considerable excitement exists among the sporting men of the country over the report that the famous Jockey, John W. Sherman, has been killed by a horse, at Long Branch, New Jersey, on the 18th inst.

The New York Star publishes an account of the poisoning of the wife and three children of David Fisher, a white man, and an inmate of Tilden's house, on East Long Island, by the late John Lewis, a colored man, who was a justice of the peace. The bodies of the woman and child were found in a box for medical investigation.

Considerable excitement exists among the sporting men of the country over the report that the famous Jockey, John W. Sherman, has been killed by a horse, at Long Branch, New Jersey, on the 18th inst.

The New York Star publishes an account of the poisoning of the wife and three children of David Fisher, a white man, and an inmate of Tilden's house, on East Long Island, by the late John Lewis, a colored man, who was a justice of the peace. The bodies of the woman and child were found in a box for medical investigation.

Considerable excitement exists among the sporting men of the country over the report that the famous Jockey, John W. Sherman, has been killed by a horse, at Long Branch, New Jersey, on the 18th inst.

The New York Star publishes an account of the poisoning of the wife and three children of David Fisher, a white man, and an inmate of Tilden's house, on East Long Island, by the late John Lewis, a colored man, who was a justice of the peace. The bodies of the woman and child were found in a box for medical investigation.

Considerable excitement exists among the sporting men of the country over the report that the famous Jockey, John W. Sherman, has been killed by a horse, at Long Branch, New Jersey, on the 18th inst.

The New York Star publishes an account of the poisoning of the wife and three children of David Fisher, a white man, and an inmate of Tilden's house, on East Long Island, by the late John Lewis, a colored man, who was a justice of the peace. The bodies of the woman and child were found in a box for medical investigation.

Considerable excitement exists among the sporting men of the country over the report that the famous Jockey, John W. Sherman, has been killed by a horse, at Long Branch, New Jersey, on the 18th inst.

The New York Star publishes an account of the poisoning of the wife and three children of David Fisher, a white man, and an inmate of Tilden's house, on East Long Island, by the late John Lewis, a colored man, who was a justice of the peace. The bodies of the woman and child were found in a box for medical investigation.

Considerable excitement exists among the sporting men of the country over the report that the famous Jockey, John W. Sherman, has been killed by a horse, at Long Branch, New Jersey, on the 18th inst.

The New York Star publishes an account of the poisoning of the wife and three children of David Fisher, a white man, and an inmate of Tilden's house, on East Long Island, by the late John Lewis, a colored man, who was a justice of the peace. The bodies of the woman and child were found in a box for medical investigation.

Considerable excitement exists among the sporting men of the country over the report that the famous Jockey, John W. Sherman, has been killed by a horse, at Long Branch, New Jersey, on the 18th inst.

The New York Star publishes an account of the poisoning of the wife and three children of David Fisher, a white man, and an inmate of Tilden's house, on East Long Island, by the late John Lewis, a colored man, who was a justice of the peace. The bodies of the woman and child were found in a box for medical investigation.

Considerable excitement exists among the sporting men of the country over the report that the famous Jockey, John W. Sherman, has been killed by a horse, at Long Branch, New Jersey, on the 18th inst.

The New York Star publishes an account of the poisoning of the wife and three children of David Fisher, a white man, and an inmate of Tilden's house, on East Long Island, by the late John Lewis, a colored man, who was a justice of the peace. The bodies of the woman and child were found in a box for medical investigation.

SPICY DEBATE.

Butler and Garfield Wrestling over the Civil Service Reform Bill.

Fun for the Galleries, but Death to Dignity—Unprofitable Recreance.

The Bill Recommended by a Small Majority—"The Beast" Prevails over the "Beast."

WASHINGTON, April 18.—In opening the debate on the civil service bill, Mr. Butler expressed his regret that this bill had been reported and was being pressed on the consideration of the House. He declared that such a bill was a disgrace to the House and to the country.

He said that the bill was a disgrace to the House and to the country. He said that the bill was a disgrace to the House and to the country.

He said that the bill was a disgrace to the House and to the country. He said that the bill was a disgrace to the House and to the country.

He said that the bill was a disgrace to the House and to the country. He said that the bill was a disgrace to the House and to the country.

He said that the bill was a disgrace to the House and to the country. He said that the bill was a disgrace to the House and to the country.

He said that the bill was a disgrace to the House and to the country. He said that the bill was a disgrace to the House and to the country.

He said that the bill was a disgrace to the House and to the country. He said that the bill was a disgrace to the House and to the country.

He said that the bill was a disgrace to the House and to the country. He said that the bill was a disgrace to the House and to the country.

He said that the bill was a disgrace to the House and to the country. He said that the bill was a disgrace to the House and to the country.

He said that the bill was a disgrace to the House and to the country. He said that the bill was a disgrace to the House and to the country.

He said that the bill was a disgrace to the House and to the country. He said that the bill was a disgrace to the House and to the country.

He said that the bill was a disgrace to the House and to the country. He said that the bill was a disgrace to the House and to the country.

He said that the bill was a disgrace to the House and to the country. He said that the bill was a disgrace to the House and to the country.

He said that the bill was a disgrace to the House and to the country. He said that the bill was a disgrace to the House and to the country.

He said that the bill was a disgrace to the House and to the country. He said that the bill was a disgrace to the House and to the country.

He said that the bill was a disgrace to the House and to the country. He said that the bill was a disgrace to the House and to the country.

He said that the bill was a disgrace to the House and to the country. He said that the bill was a disgrace to the House and to the country.

He said that the bill was a disgrace to the House and to the country. He said that the bill was a disgrace to the House and to the country.

He said that the bill was a disgrace to the House and to the country. He said that the bill was a disgrace to the House and to the country.

He said that the bill was a disgrace to the House and to the country. He said that the bill was a disgrace to the House and to the country.

He said that the bill was a disgrace to the House and to the country. He said that the bill was a disgrace to the House and to the country.

He said that the bill was a disgrace to the House and to the country. He said that the bill was a disgrace to the House and to the country.

He said that the bill was a disgrace to the House and to the country. He said that the bill was a disgrace to the House and to the country.

He said that the bill was a disgrace to the House and to the country. He said that the bill was a disgrace to the House and to the country.

He said that the bill was a disgrace to the House and to the country. He said that the bill was a disgrace to the House and to the country.

He said that the bill was a disgrace to the House and to the country. He said that the bill was a disgrace to the House and to the country.

He said that the bill was a disgrace to the House and to the country. He said that the bill was a disgrace to the House and to the country.

He said that the bill was a disgrace to the House and to the country. He said that the bill was a disgrace to the House and to the country.

He said that the bill was a disgrace to the House and to the country. He said that the bill was a disgrace to the House and to the country.

He said that the bill was a disgrace to the House and to the country. He said that the bill was a disgrace to the House and to the country.

He said that the bill was a disgrace to the House and to the country. He said that the bill was a disgrace to the House and to the country.

He said that the bill was a disgrace to the House and to the country. He said that the bill was a disgrace to the House and to the country.

He said that the bill was a disgrace to the House and to the country. He said that the bill was a disgrace to the House and to the country.

He said that the bill was a disgrace to the House and to the country. He said that the bill was a disgrace to the House and to the country.

He said that the bill was a disgrace to the House and to the country. He said that the bill was a disgrace to the House and to the country.

He said that the bill was a disgrace to the House and to the country. He said that the bill was a disgrace to the House and to the country.

He said that the bill was a disgrace to the House and to the country. He said that the bill was a disgrace to the House and to the country.

He said that the bill was a disgrace to the House and to the country. He said that the bill was a disgrace to the House and to the country.

He said that the bill was a disgrace to the House and to the country. He said that the bill was a disgrace to the House and to the country.

He said that the bill was a disgrace to the House and to the country. He said that the bill was a disgrace to the House and to the country.

He said that the bill was a disgrace to the House and to the country. He said that the bill was a disgrace to the House and to the country.

He said that the bill was a disgrace to the House and to the country. He said that the bill was a disgrace to the House and to the country.

He said that the bill was a disgrace to the House and to the country. He said that the bill was a disgrace to the House and to the country.

He said that the bill was a disgrace to the House and to the country. He said that the bill was a disgrace to the House and to the country.

He said that the bill was a disgrace to the House and to the country. He said that the bill was a disgrace to the House and to the country.

He said that the bill was a disgrace to the House and to the country. He said that the bill was a disgrace to the House and to the country.

He said that the bill was a disgrace to the House and to the country. He said that the bill was a disgrace to the House and to the country.

He said that the bill was a disgrace to the House and to the country. He said that the bill was a disgrace to the House and to the country.

He said that the bill was a disgrace to the House and to the country. He said that the bill was a disgrace to the House and to the country.

He said that the bill was a disgrace to the House and to the country. He said that the bill was a disgrace to the House and to the country.

He said that the bill was a disgrace to the House and to the country. He said that the bill was a disgrace to the House and to the country.

He said that the bill was a disgrace to the House and to the country. He said that the bill was a disgrace to the House and to the country.

He said that the bill was a disgrace to the House and to the country. He said that the bill was a disgrace to the House and to the country.

He said that the bill was a disgrace to the House and to the country. He said that the bill was a disgrace to the House and to the country.

He said that the bill was a disgrace to the House and to the country. He said that the bill was a disgrace to the House and to the country.

He said that the bill was a disgrace to the House and to the country. He said that the bill was a disgrace to the House and to the country.

He said that the bill was a disgrace to the House and to the country. He said that the bill was a disgrace to the House and to the country.

He said that the bill was a disgrace to the House and to the country. He said that the bill was a disgrace to the House and to the country.

He said that the bill was a disgrace to the House and to the country. He said that the bill was a disgrace to the House and to the country.

He said that the bill was a disgrace to the House and to the country. He said that the bill was a disgrace to the House and to the country.

He said that the bill was a disgrace to the House and to the country. He said that the bill was a disgrace to the House and to the country.

He said that the bill was a disgrace to the House and to the country. He said that the bill was a disgrace to the House and to the country.

He said that the bill was a disgrace to the House and to the country. He said that the bill was a disgrace to the House and to the country.

He said that the bill was a disgrace to the House and to the country. He said that the bill was a disgrace to the House and to the country.

He said that the bill was a disgrace to the House and to the country. He said that the bill was a disgrace to the House and to the country.

He said that the bill was a disgrace to the House and to the country. He said that the bill was a disgrace to the House and to the country.

He said that the bill was a disgrace to the House and to the country. He said that the bill was a disgrace to the House and to the country.

He said that the bill was a disgrace to the House and to the country. He said that the bill was a disgrace to the House and to the country.

He said that the bill was a disgrace to the House and to the country. He said that the bill was a disgrace to the House and to the country.

He said that the bill was a disgrace to the House and to the country. He said that the bill was a disgrace to the House and to the country.

ENGLAND.

The General Commission—Bismarck and France—Cuba and Jamaica Slavery.

A Message from the President Touching Affairs in South Carolina.

Not One Word about Scott's Throats Millions, but Old Kossuth's Throat Revamped.

A Document for Political Effect—A Bid for Imperial Power and the Harbors Corps.

WASHINGTON, April 19.—The President transmitted the following message to the House to-day:

To the House of Representatives:

In answer to the resolution of the House of Representatives of January 20, I have the honor to report to you the result of the investigation of the affairs of the Harbors Corps, as directed by the House on that day.

The Harbors Corps is a body of men, organized and equipped for the purpose of maintaining the harbors of the United States in a state of repair and readiness for service.

The Harbors Corps is a body of men, organized and equipped for the purpose of maintaining the harbors of the United States in a state of repair and readiness for service.

The Harbors Corps is a body of men, organized and equipped for the purpose of maintaining the harbors of the United States in a state of repair and readiness for service.

The Harbors Corps is a body of men, organized and equipped for the purpose of maintaining the harbors of the United States in a state of repair and readiness for service.

The Harbors Corps is a body of men, organized and equipped for the purpose of maintaining the harbors of the United States in a state of repair and readiness for service.

The Harbors Corps is a body of men, organized and equipped for the purpose of maintaining the harbors of the United States in a state of repair and readiness for service.

The Harbors Corps is a body of men, organized and equipped for the purpose of maintaining the harbors of the United States in a state of repair and readiness for service.

The Harbors Corps is a body of men, organized and equipped for the purpose of maintaining the harbors of the United States in a state of repair and readiness for service.

The Harbors Corps is a body of men, organized and equipped for the purpose of maintaining the harbors of the United States in a state of repair and readiness for service.

The Harbors Corps is a body of men, organized and equipped for the purpose of maintaining the harbors of the United States in a state of repair and readiness for service.

The Harbors Corps is a body of men, organized and equipped for the purpose of maintaining the harbors of the United States in a state of repair and readiness for service.

The Harbors Corps is a body of men, organized and equipped for the purpose of maintaining the harbors of the United States in a state of repair and readiness for service.

The Harbors Corps is a body of men, organized and equipped for the purpose of maintaining the harbors of the United States in a state of repair and readiness for service.

The Harbors Corps is a body of men, organized and equipped for the purpose of maintaining the harbors of the United States in a state of repair and readiness for service.

The Harbors Corps is a body of men, organized and equipped for the purpose of maintaining the harbors of the United States in a state of repair and readiness for service.

The Harbors Corps is a body of men, organized and equipped for the purpose of maintaining the harbors of the United States in a state of repair and readiness for service.

The Harbors Corps is a body of men, organized and equipped for the purpose of maintaining the harbors of the United States in a state of repair and readiness for service.

The Harbors Corps is a body of men, organized and equipped for the purpose of maintaining the harbors of the United States in a state of repair and readiness for service.

The Harbors Corps is a body of men, organized and equipped for the purpose of maintaining the harbors of the United States in a state of repair and readiness for service.

The Harbors Corps is a body of men, organized and equipped for the purpose of maintaining the harbors of the United States in a state of repair and readiness for service.

The Harbors Corps is a body of men, organized and equipped for the purpose of maintaining the harbors of the United States in a state of repair and readiness for service.

The Harbors Corps is a body of men, organized and equipped for the purpose of maintaining the harbors of the United States in a state of repair and readiness for service.

The Harbors Corps is a body of men, organized and equipped for the purpose of maintaining the harbors of the United States in a state of repair and readiness for service.

The Harbors Corps is a body of men, organized and equipped for the purpose of maintaining the harbors of the United States in a state of repair and readiness for service.

The Harbors Corps is a body of men, organized and equipped for the purpose of maintaining the harbors of the United States in a state of repair and readiness for service.

The Harbors Corps is a body of men, organized and equipped for the purpose of maintaining the harbors of the United States in a state of repair and readiness for service.

The Harbors Corps is a body of men, organized and equipped for the purpose of maintaining the harbors of the United States in a state of repair and readiness for service.

The Harbors Corps is a body of men, organized and equipped for the purpose of maintaining the harbors of the United States in a state of repair and readiness for service.

The Harbors Corps is a body of men, organized and equipped for the purpose of maintaining the harbors of the United States in a state of repair and readiness for service.